

"Taking MBA courses has allowed me to explore and define my career projection. The business acumen I received from Marist has been invaluable. I find myself using knowledge I learned in class on a daily basis. Researching an actual company and industry, putting together a business and marketing strategy, and presenting it to my class gave me the confidence to succeed in a real-world setting."

Brendan Huddy, MBA '16

NOT JUST AN MBA, A MARIST MBA

Show your commitment to excellence in business and management by earning a Marist MBA. Flexible online courses work around your schedule to keep you moving forward in your career.

Here's why the Marist MBA is your best choice.

- Control your curriculum: You decide what is important for you by choosing between three concentrations to help focus your degree.
- Big Data analytics infused throughout the degree to demonstrate how analytics are an important part of the management decision process in all areas of running a business.
- Most flexible format: Offered 100% online our MBA allows you to complete the program from your home, office or when traveling here in the U.S., or abroad.
- Experiential weekends: Optional events that bring students together with alumni, faculty and high-level guest speakers, to network and focus on additional management skill-building exercises.
- Program recognition: The AACSB accredited Marist MBA program has been included on the U.S. News and World Report's list of best online MBA programs since it was first launched. And the Princeton Review includes Marist on the list of Best 382 Colleges year after year.
