

BUSINESS

Bring more to the table with a business degree

A business degree can help prepare you to navigate the corporate ladder. At University of Phoenix, our business degrees offer a solid foundation in everything from accounting and economics to marketing and communications, as well as certificate options to customize your degree and gain specialized skills.

Bachelor of Science in Accounting (BSACC)

Program length: 120 credits
Core credit requirement: 78 credits, 26 courses

Bachelor of Science in Finance and Technology (BSFIN)

Program length: 120 credits
Core credit requirement: 54 credits, 18 courses

Bachelor of Science in Business (BSB)

Program length: 120 credits
Core credit requirement: 42 credits, 14 courses

Bachelor of Science in Management (BSM)

Program length: 120 credits
Core credit requirement: 30 credits, 10 courses

Bachelor of Science in Communication (BS/COM)

Program length: 120 credits
Core credit requirement: 42 credits, 14 courses

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Program length: 33 credits
Core credit requirement: 33 credits, 11 courses

Competency-based MBA (MBA-CB)

Program length: 33 credits
Core credit requirement: 33 credits, 11 courses

Master of Health Administration/Master of Business Administration (MHA/MBA)

Program length: 58 credits
Core credit requirement: 58 credits, 20 courses

Master of Management (MM)

Program length: 33 credits
Core credit requirement: 33 credits, 11 courses

Why choose us?

The BSB and BSM and BS/COM can be customized with undergraduate certificates in:

- Business Analytics
- General Management
- Human Resource Management
- Leadership and Management
- Marketing
- Operations Management
- Project Management
- Small Business Management and Entrepreneurship

You also have the option to add one of the following graduate certificates to your MBA:

- Accounting
- Human Resource Management
- Project Management

Have questions?

Grant Van Eck
401.406.1261
grantvaneck@gmail.com

To learn more, visit:
phoenix.edu/hvfcu

